This is the final officiating seminar to be held this year by Shihan Funakoshi. These seminars are essential prior to officiating at FSKA tournaments, assuring efficient and competent judging. This is an excellent opportunity to review and fine-tune our judging skills for the 28th Annual Tournament!

Knowledge of judging as well as timekeeping and scorekeeping at FSKA tournaments is one of the criteria for FSKA Judging Certification and will weigh heavily at Dan Exams. A Chief Judge MUST have knowledge in all of these areas.

➤ MESSAGE FROM SHIHAN – Officiating Seminar

- MANDATORY ATTENDANCE – For performing in Black Belts Demonstration at this FSKA tournament. Fine tuning necessary for timing, synchronizing & knowing of kata & kihon being performed.
- (Additional demonstration practice for Kihon & Kata will be offered on Thursday night classes at 7:00 pm at Main Dojo in Milpitas)
- MANDATORY ATTENDANCE – For Chief Judges and Corner Judges
Parents & Spectators Welcome!

Adult Black Belts encouraged to participate & support in areas of Judging, scorekeeping, timekeeping.
